The Children's Book Council of Australia

The CBCA is an independent, not for profit organisation established in 1945 to promote children's literature and to encourage children to read. Membership is open to all interested in bringing children and good books together.

The aim of the CBCA is to encourage children's book reading through such activities as:

- Disseminating information about children's books, authors and illustrators
 - Promoting high standards in children's book reviewing
 - Encouraging authors and illustrators of children's books
 - Supporting quality children's library services
 - Organising Children's Book Week activities
 - Providing information and resources which stimulate wide interest and discussion of children's literature.

CBCA Publications and Resources
